

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE FOR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please read this carefully.

With your consent, the practice is permitted by federal privacy laws to make uses and disclosures of your health information for purposes of treatment, payment and health-care operations. Protected health information is the information we create and obtain in providing our services to you. Such information may include documenting your symptoms, examination, test results, diagnoses, treatment, and applying for future care or treatment. It also includes billing documents for these services.

Your Health Information Rights

The health record we maintain and billing records are the physical property of the practice. The information in it, however, belongs to you. You have a right to:

- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your health information by delivering the request in writing to the office. We are not required to grant the request but we will comply with any request granted.
- Request that you be allowed to inspect and copy your health record and billing record. You may exercise this right by delivering the request in writing to the office.
- Appeal a denial of access to your protected health information except in certain circumstances.
- Request that your healthcare record be amended to correct incomplete or incorrect information by delivering a written request to the office.
- File any statement of disagreement if your amendment is denied, and require that the request for amendment and any denial be attached in all full disclosures of your protected health information.
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as required to be maintained by law by delivering a written request to the office. An accounting will not include internal uses of information for treatment, payment or operations, disclosures made to you or made at your request, or disclosures made to family members or friends in the course of providing care.
- Request that communication of your health information be made by alternative means or at an alternative location by delivering the request in writing to the office.
- Revoke authorizations that you made previously to use or disclose information except to the extent information or action has already been taken by delivering a written revocation to the office.

If you wish to exercise any of the above rights, please contact Maranacook Family Health Care in person or in writing, during normal hours. She will provide you with assistance on the steps to take to exercise these rights.

Responsibilities of Maranacook Family Health Care

The practice is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information as required by law.
- Provide you with a notice of our duties and privacy practices as to the information we collect and maintain about you.
- Abide by the terms of this notice.
- Accommodate your reasonable requests regarding methods to communicate health information with you.

Maranacook Family Health Care reserves the right to amend, change, or eliminate provisions in its privacy practices and access practices and to enact new provisions regarding the protected health information maintained here. If the information practices change, this notice will be amended. You are entitled to receive a revised copy of this notice by calling and requesting a copy of our "Notice" or by visiting the office and picking up a copy.

To Request Information or File a Complaint

If you have questions, would like additional information, or want to report a problem regarding the handling of your information, you may contact Maranacook Health. Additionally if you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a written complaint at the clinic. You may also file a complaint by mailing it or e-mailing it to the Secretary of Health and Human Services whose street address and e-mail address is 200 Independence Ave, SW, Washington, DC 20201 and HHS.mail@HHS.gov. We cannot, and will not, require you to waive the right to file a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS) as a condition of receiving treatment from the practice. We cannot, and will not, retaliate against you for filing a complaint with the Secretary.

Other Disclosures and Uses
